P: whose story is a drama with which the church keeps time.

WE GO FORTH WITH BLESSING (Responsively)

L: The Christian year is a vital and refreshing means through which God is given to us.

P: It is giving that is never exhausted.

L: Each time, the year, week, and day push us a bit deeper into encounter with God.

P: So the year is a constant means of grace through which we receive God’s gifts to us.

L: The whole structure calls attention to God’s work, not ours.

P: And God’s work is made known in the changing events and needs of each time and place. We await with anticipation the New Year, the New Advent.
