MISSION STATEMENT (Unison)

The mission of the United Methodist Church of Antioch is to grow in faith; to worship God following the teachings of Jesus Christ, and to be instruments of God's love through the Holy Spirit as we reach out to our community and the world.

Invites you to stand as you are able, or to sit with gusto!*

WE ARE WELCOMED TO WORSHIP (Responsively)

L: Just as the disciples gathered in a room with Jesus, so we gather in this place, ready to watch, listen, and pray on this Holy Thursday.

P: We come to remember and encounter Love Incarnate, who sets us free.

L: As Jesus kneels to wash the dirt from the disciples' feet, we join in their surprise; we've never seen a Savior who acts like a servant.

P: We come to remember and encounter Love Incarnate, who sets us free.

L: As Jesus calls the disciples to wash one another's feet, we receive with them a new commandment: to love one another as Jesus has loved us.

P: We come to remember and encounter Love Incarnate, who sets us free.

L: Beloved, come. Come to kneel as a servant, come to the table with your fellow disciples, come to worship Love Incarnate, who sets you free.

P: We come to remember and to worship God who has loosed our bonds and set us free to love one another as God has loved us.

(Written by Dr. Lisa Hancock, Discipleship Ministries, September 2024.)

CONFESSION AND PARDON (Responsively)

L: My sisters and brothers, Christ shows us his love by becoming a humble servant.

P: Most merciful God, we your Church, confess that often our spirit has not been that of Christ. Where we have failed to love one another as he loves us, where we have pledged loyalty to him with our lips and then betrayed, deserted, or denied him, forgive us, we pray; and by your Spirit make us faithful in every time of trial; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

L: Who is in a position to condemn? Only Christ. But Christ suffered and died for us, was raised from the dead and ascended on high for us, and continues to intercede for us. Believe the good news: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

P: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

All: Glory to God. Amen.

Let Us Be Bread

WE ASK FOR UNDERSTANDING (Unison)

Holy Lord, we come to you aware that Lent is probably our most challenging season. We look at all the hardest parts directly and we can't turn away. Be with us as we hear your Word read and proclaimed, that we might know that even in the hardest parts there is love and grace, mercy and hope. In Christ's name we pray. Amen.

WE HEAR THE GOOD NEWS – John 13:1-17, 31b-35

Now before the festival of the Passover, Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart from this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. The devil had already put it into the heart of Judas son of Simon Iscariot to betray him. And during supper Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going to God, got up from the table, took off his outer robe, and tied a towel around himself. Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was tied around him. He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?" Jesus answered, "You do not know now what I am doing, but later you will understand." Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet.” Jesus answered, “Unless I wash you, you have no share with me.” Simon Peter said to him, “Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!” Jesus said to him, “One who has bathed does not need to wash, except for the feet, but is entirely clean. And you are clean, though not all of you.” For he knew who was to betray him; for this reason he said, “Not all of you are clean.” After he had washed their feet, had put on his robe, and had returned to the table, he said to them, “Do you know what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord—and you are right, for that is what I am. So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another’s feet. For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you. Very truly, I tell you, servants are not greater than their master, nor are messengers greater than the one who sent them. If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them.

When he had gone out, Jesus said, “Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once. Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, ‘Where I am going, you cannot come.’ I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

L: The word of God for the people of God.

P: Thanks be to God.

EVENING PRAYERS

Silent Prayer

Pastoral Prayer

The Lord's Prayer (Unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNIONHymns Sung During Receiving#617 I Come with Joy#616 *Come, Sinners to the Gospel FeastPRAYER AFTER RECEIVING (Unison)

Eternal God, we give you thanks for this holy mystery in which you have given yourself to us. Empower us with this sacrament. Grant that we may go into the world in the strength of your Spirit, to give ourselves for others, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OFFERTORY *Ah, Holy Jesus*DOXOLOGY #95Praise God, from Whom All Blessings Flow*

WE DEDICATE OUR GIFTS TO GOD (Unison)

Merciful God, whose love knows no bounds, we bring our offerings as a reflection of your boundless grace.

Throughout these Lenten days, remind us of the humility of Christ, who knelt to serve and commanded us to love one another. May these gifts be used to lift the lowly, to bind the broken, and to carry your love across every barrier. Empower us to stand together in service and love and to follow the path of Christ, who leads us to freedom and a new home in you. In his holy name, we pray. Amen.

CLOSING HYMN Green Hymnal# 3085

The Power of the Cross

Oh, to see the dawn of the darkest day:
Christ on the road to Calvary.
Tried by sinful men, torn and beaten, then nailed to a cross of wood.
This the power of the cross;
Christ became sin for us.
Took the blame, bore the wrath,
we stand forgiven at the cross.

Oh, to see the pain written on your face, bearing the awesome weight of sin.
Every bitter thought, every evil deed crowning your bloodstained brow.
This the power of the cross;
Christ became sin for us.
Took the blame, bore the wrath,
we stand forgiven at the cross.

Now the daylight flees; now the ground beneath quakes as its Maker bows his head.

Curtain torn in two, dead are raised to life.

“Finished!” the victory cry.

This the power of the cross;

Christ became sin for us.

Took the blame, bore the wrath,

we stand forgiven at the cross.

Oh, to see my name written in the wounds,
for through Your suffering I am free.

Death is crushed to death, life is mine to live,
won through your selfless love!

This the power of the cross;

Son of God slain for us.

What a love, what a cost!

We stand forgiven at the cross.

DISMISSAL WITH BLESSING

L: Go in peace. May Jesus Christ, who for our sake became obedient unto death, even death on a cross, keep you and strengthen you this night and for ever. Amen.
